

To the Most Incredible Person in the Whole World I Am So Honored to Call You My Mother

You are the most incredible woman I know
You only need to walk into a room and the whole room lights up
You have this uncanny ability to make people feel good about themselves
You lift the spirits of those who are down, or down in their luck
People love you – I mean absolutely love YOU
You are charming, warm, friendly, cheery, and downright adorable
You are truly a ravishing beauty – yes, on the outside but also on the inside
You have aged in wisdom without aging in looks
You carry yourself with awesome dignity and grace
You are truly a woman of tremendous class
You make people feel comfortable, no matter their social status, their financial status
Or their level of importance
You are the epitome of a true Southern Belle Because of you, I have learned to appreciate people for who they are
Because of you, I know to treat people with kindness and respect
Because of you, I understand the importance of simple consideration for all
Because of you, I stand tall, with confidence in myself
Because of you, I love people, helping people, enjoying people's company
Because of you, I have learned to be a gracious hostess
Because of you, I have inherited the art of conversation
Because of you, I have finally learned to listen to people, really listen to them and be Interested in what they have to say
Because of you, life is wonderful, truly wonderful and enjoyable
Because of you, I carry myself with grace (sometimes)
Because of your example, I have been instilled with a strong value system and have the Strength to live by a standard that is higher than most
If one day I can acquire even half of your charm, your physical beauty, your inner beauty,
Your dignity, your abilities with people, I will be satisfied
Yes, if I can be even half the woman you are, I will be greater than most. And one day – God willing – I pray
I will be half the Mother you have been to me, then I will be among the Best of Mothers
I am so honored that you are my Mother
I am so proud of you – each time I see you reach out to someone or just change the room
Simply by your presence
Mom – I love you. I love you more than words will ever express. I love you more than my actions
Will ever reveal. The love for you I carry with me each day in my heart, I just want to tell you.
Because I don't think I do that enough. I truly deep down revere, honor, respect and dearly love YOU!
